Before subscribing, potential investors must consult the regulatory documentation of the Funds approved by the AMF, including the current Key Investor Information Document (KIID) available on the website www.amundi.com or upon request from the registered office of Amundi AM. Investment in a Fund carries a substantial degree of risk (i.e. risks are detailed in the DICI and prospectus).

The transparency policy and information on the composition of Funds' assets is available at amundiETF.com. The indicative net asset value is published by stockbrokers. Information on the composition of indices is available on the websites of the index suppliers. Units in the Funds acquired on the secondary market may not, in general terms, be directly resold to the Fund. Investors must buy and sell units on a secondary market with the assistance of an intermediary (e.g. a broker) and, in doing so, may incur costs. In addition, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when they buy units, and may receive less than the current net asset value when they sell them. Transaction cost and commissions may occur when trading ETFs. It is the responsibility of investors to assure themselves as to the compatibility of this investment with the laws of the jurisdiction to which they are subject and of its appropriateness to their investment objectives and financial (including tax) situation.
